

People spend more than half of their time working in teams. That's over 40,000 hours of team work in a lifetime.

So how do we make that time as effective as possible?

5 ways to optimise team performance

1

Build and maintain TRUST

- Intra-team trust is a significant predictor of team effectiveness especially in virtual teams
- Focus everyone on being available and transparent about their whereabouts

2

Reduce team COGNITIVE LOAD

- Overloading your team's collective cognitive load impairs decision-making, performance and increases stress.
- Review whether expectations are realistic and help your team prioritise and streamline

3

Facilitate SOCIAL COHESION

- Direct link to improved team efficacy and productivity
- Create intentional opportunities for informal social interaction during the working day – don't leave it to chance

4

Leverage team COLLECTIVE IQ

- Meetings offer a valuable opportunity to use the collective IQ of the team
- Consciously design and manage meetings so they are focused, inspiring, challenging and fun

5

Proactively manage CONFLICT

- Some conflict prompts healthy debate but watch out for it turning into relationship or process conflict
- Mine for this and give your team the tools to strike the right balance on the conflict continuum
